

ShareMyVideo – EJU Video Contest

Conditions of participation and privacy policy

1. A filled-in application form for participation is a ground for participation in the competition. Filling in the form, the contestant acknowledges that he/she is a holder of the right to the film participating in the competition and grants the European Judo Union a right to demonstrate the film on eju.net, Facebook page, <https://www.facebook.com/europeanjudo>, <http://www.youtube.com/user/europeanjudo> YouTube video channel and other official EJU media.
2. The contestant (author of the film) warrants that all persons participating in his video gave their preliminary consent to be filmed. The EJU is not responsible for appearance of the third parties on camera who did not give their consent to be filmed.
3. The EJU has a right to use the video materials provided for non-commercial purposes without additional notification of the contestants (authors of the film).
4. The film can be vocalized in the foreign language different from English, but English subtitles during demonstration are required. The films in the foreign languages without English subtitles are not allowed for participation in the competition.
5. Only authors and owners of the film are allowed to participate in the competition.
6. The EJU is not responsible for the content of the materials provided by the contestant as well as for observation of the third parties' copyrights (usage of music, images of trademarks, etc.)
7. The contestant (author of the film) of the competition is responsible for audio and video materials used in the film.
8. The contestant warrants observation of the third parties' copyrights.
9. The EJU reserves the right to exclude the films, which contain non-ethical and obscene materials from the competition.
10. Registration of the contestants:

The online forms should be presented in English within the time specified by e-mail

Online accreditation: <http://bit.ly/1AQghHi>

The information and video file should be specified and loaded directly into the form margins, be confirmed and sent to the deadline stated by e-mail.

Upload video: sharemyjudo@eju.net
11. When the application form is signed and sent, the author of the film will obtain a number of the contestant. During 24 hours, the film will be published on the official page of the competition with the number of the contestant as a name.

12. The winner is determined by the number of likes on the competition page <https://www.facebook.com/sharemyjudo> which does not contradict Facebook rules of use <https://www.facebook.com/business/news/page-promotions-terms>

13. Deadline for application and video sending: 31.10.2014